

Women's Resource Center in Alamance County
Founders' and Rising Star Award Nomination Form
Nomination Deadline: 7/31/2023

Honoring Alamance County's Outstanding Women
Leaders of 2023

Description: The Founders' Award is given by the Women's Resource Center of Alamance County to female leaders/businesswomen who demonstrate the characteristics of our Founders by providing outstanding contributions in the areas of mentoring, community development, philanthropy, and business. The Rising Star Award is given to the most deserving nominees under age 40 who may be earlier in their careers and community involvement but already demonstrate leadership in these areas.

Criteria for Nomination:

1. Nominees must be women who reside in or provide leadership in Alamance County. Weight will be placed on involvement and impact in the local Alamance County community.
2. Current WRC Board & Staff members are not eligible. Previous award recipients are not eligible to win the same award again.
3. Eligible nominees will demonstrate one or more of the following:
  - a. Mentoring: participation in formal or informal activities that develop, support, and advise women and/ or encourage community involvement
  - b. Community Development: participation in endeavors that strengthen the local community.
  - c. Philanthropy: contributions of time, materials, and/or money benefiting the local community
  - d. Business: contributions in their workplace and/or profession/industry
4. All nominees must be able to attend the Award Ceremony at the Leading the Way event on November 2, 2023.

Nomination Procedure:

1. The nomination period is June 1, 2023 – July 31, 2023
2. Nominations can be submitted by WRC supporters and non-supporters. Self-nominations are welcome.
3. All nominations must include the following:
